2. Knowledge of current capabilities and trends in national research and education funding, partnership development programs, and Federal-wide research and education initiatives.
3. Demonstrated knowledge of organizations working to diversify the engineering community through addressing major issues related to access, participation, and success of underrepresented groups.
4. Demonstrated experience in implementing education reforms to promote active learning, use of technology in the classroom environment or other methods to improve learning.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Senior Executive Service (SES) covers managerial positions above GS-15 in the Federal Service. Persons appointed to the SES are eligible for health benefits, life insurance, social security, Federal retirement and thrift savings plan coverage, and participate in the Federal leave system. Career appointees are eligible for bonuses based on performance in addition to base pay. Competitive status is not required, veteran's preference does not apply and there are no grade restrictions. New appointees to the SES are required to serve a one-year probationary period. Final selection of career appointees requires the approval of the U.S. Office of Personnel Management. OPM approval will be based on the selectee's background in the following 5 executive core qualification areas: (1) Leading Change, (2) Leading People, (3) Results Driven Leadership, (4) Business Acumen, and (5) Building Coalitions/Communication. These areas are incorporated in the 5 executive/managerial requirements for the position. Information about the leadership requirements for SES-level positions is available on the U.S. Office of Personnel Management website at www.opm.gov/ses/handbook.html. The individual selected will be required to file an "Executive Branch Personnel Public Financial Disclosure Report" (SF-278) in accordance with the Ethics in Government Act of 1978.

EVALUATION METHOD

Applicants will be screened for basic eligibility according to the essential qualification requirements. Eligible applicants will be reviewed by an Evaluation Panel according to criteria based on the qualification requirements. The best qualified candidates will be referred to the appropriate official who will recommend selection. All applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, political affiliation, marital status, physical disability, age, membership in an employee organization or other non-merit reason. Any applicant may request information or appeal the procedures and operations of the merit staffing process to the Executive Resources Board.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

Please ensure that your application includes the documents listed below and reflects your background in terms of the qualification requirements for the position.
